

Rom Shamir

ITA

Music Director- Israel Defense Forces Orchestra
Board Member- WASBE
Board Member- Israel National Youth Wind Orchestra

Rom Shamir ha iniziato gli studi in tromba all'età di dieci anni al Conservatorio Municipale di Tel-Aviv per poi proseguire sotto la guida del M° Yigal Meltzer, prima tromba dell'Israel Philharmonic Orchestra, ed al Thelma Yellin High School of the Arts.

Rom Shamir ha collaborato con la Israel National Youth Orchestra e con Young Israeli Philharmonic. Ha inoltre ricoperto il ruolo di prima tromba al Jerusalem Music Centre Brass Quintet, formazione che fa parte del progetto David Goldman per giovani musicisti talentuosi.

Ha svolto il servizio militare come trombettista presso l'Israel Defense Forces Orchestra e contemporaneamente ha iniziato gli studi di Direzione con il M° Menachem Nebenhaus. È stato inoltre ammesso alla classe di Direzione tenuto dal M° Yi-An Xu presso il Buchmann Mehta School of Music (Università di Tel-Aviv).

Durante i suoi studi accademici Rom Shamir ha partecipato a molti corsi e concorsi nel mondo, vincendo il Premio Speciale al concorso per Direttori "Danube" (Budapest, 2016).

Recentemente Rom Shamir ha vinto il primo premio al concorso tenuto in collaborazione tra Haifa Symphony Orchestra ed il dipartimento di Direzione del Buchmann Metha School of Music.

All'età di 23 anni, ancor prima di aver conseguito il diploma, è stato nominato Direttore Principale del Israel Defense Forces Orchestra. Questo lo ha fatto diventare uno dei più giovani Direttori a capo di una importante orchestra in Israele.

Tra le sue varie attività Rom scrive e compone canzoni, tra cui una diventata molto popolare tra i giovani in Israele.

EN

Music Director- Israel Defense Forces Orchestra
Board Member- WASBE
Board Member- Israel National Youth Wind Orchestra

Born (1994) and raised in Tel-Aviv, Rom began playing the trumpet at the age of 10, studying at the Thelma-Yellin School of the Arts with the additional tutorage of Mr. Yigal Meltzer, principal trumpet of the Israeli Philharmonic. Rom's performance experience grew as he played with several leading wind ensembles including that of the National Youth Wind Orchestra conducted by Felix Hauswirth and Mark Herron. At the age of 18, Rom was conscripted to the Israel Defense Forces Orchestra and commenced his military service serving as both the principal trumpet as well as drill sergeant of the orchestra. Amidst his service, Rom began his studies in conducting at the Buchmann-Mehta

School of Music (Tel-Aviv University), under the instruction of Yi-An Xu, of which he graduated with distinction. During his career Rom has participated in numerous competitions both at national and international levels. His most outstanding achievements were winning first place at the Haifa Symphony Orchestra conducting competition (2019) and winning the special award at the Danube Contest (Budapest 2016).

At the age of 23, having yet to complete his studies, Rom's talent saw him appointed to the position of Musical Director of the Israel Defense Forces Orchestra, which he currently holds. The IDF Orchestra is the official orchestra of the State of Israel and is the leading and most prestigious concert band in the entire country. Moreover, it is renowned for its repertoire of original wind ensembles, as such playing a key role in steering original musical soundtracks for the State. As the youngest conductor to date, Rom not only brings an innovative, youthful, and creative approach to the orchestra, he also is driven by a desire to continuously expand the orchestra's repertoire utilizing a varied range of musical styles from marching band, concert band through big band and chamber music ensembles. Rom is committed to educating the next generation of musicians to both create original interpretations whilst paying homage to the rich historical musical traditions of the State.

DE

Rom Shamir begann sein Trompetenstudium im Alter von 10 Jahren am städtischen Konservatorium in Tel Aviv. Er studierte bei Yigal Meltzer, dem Solotrompeter des Israel Philharmonic Orchestra und an der Thelma Yellin High School of the Arts.

Rom Shamir ist Absolvent des Israel National Youth Wind Orchestra und der Young Israeli Philharmonic. Darüber hinaus war er erster Trompeter des Brass Quintet des Jerusalem Music Center im Rahmen des David Goldman-Programms für herausragende junge Musiker. Er leistet seinem Militärdienst als Trompeter des Israel Defense Forces Orchestra. Während seines Dienstes begann das Dirigentenstudium bei Maestro Menachem Nebenhaus und wurde in die Dirigierklasse von Maestro Yi-An Xu an der Buchmann Mehta School of Music (Universität Tel Aviv) aufgenommen.

Während seines Studiums nahm Rom Shamir an zahlreichen Kursen und Wettbewerben auf der ganzen Welt teil und gewann den „Sonderpreis“ beim „Donau“-Wettbewerb für Dirigenten (Budapest, 2016).

Vor kurzem gewann Rom den ersten Preis bei einem kombinierten Wettbewerb des Haifa Symphony Orchestra und der Dirigentenabteilung der Buchmann Mehta School of Music.

Im Alter von 23 Jahren und noch vor seinem Abschluss wurde Rom zum Chefdirigenten des Israel Defense Forces Orchestra ernannt. Dies machte ihn zu einem der jüngsten Dirigenten, der ein Hauptorchester in Israel leitete.

Unter all seinen Aktivitäten schreibt und komponiert Rom auch Lieder, Theaterstücke und Originaloperen, die bei jungen Zuschauern in Israel populär wurden.